

National Rover Council Executive Goals

To be implemented and reported on at the National Rover Council Meeting – January 2006
 Rod Abson, Chairman ~ Jason Thomson, Vice Chairman ~ Rob Unger, Training Officer

‘Building Relationships’ is a core theme for the NRC Exec in 2005

Achievement

Who is responsible?	What are we aiming to achieve?	Outcome
NRC Chairman & Training Officer	Implement the Scouts of the World Award Programme into Rovers & Venturers
NRC Chairman & Training Officer	Build a mutually beneficial relationship with the Duke of Edinburgh Award
NRC Training Officer	Promote the Baden Powell Scout Award and support Branches and in turn Crews with Ideas, Resources and Administration

Mates

Who is responsible?	What are we aiming to achieve?	Outcome
NRC Chairman and Vice Chairman	Develop and implement Australian Rovers Promotional Campaign with AdPartners
NRC Chairman	Finalise, produce and distribute Rover Fun Guide to Crews across Australia and New Zealand.
NRC Vice Chairman, NRC Exec and Branches	Create a CD of Resources and a promotional kit for Rover Crews
NRC Exec	Maintain clear communications with BRC Chairmen & BC Rovers at least once per month.

Memory Makers

Who is responsible?	What are we aiming to achieve?	Outcome
NRC Chairman	Develop Fiji International Service Project with International Commissioner and promote throughout Scouting Leaders, Rovers & Venturers
NRC Vice Chairman & Boomerang Coordinator	Throw the Rover Peace Boomerang around Australia.
NRC Chairman, NRC Vice Chairman & International Commissioner	Encourage Rovers to be involved in overseas Scouting opportunities
NRC Chairman	Provide valuable contribution to

	World Youth Forum & World Scout Conference
NRC Chairman, NRC Vice Chairman, Aussiemoot Chairman	Continue the development and promotion of Aussiemoot to all Branches and international Rovers
NRC Vice Chairman & Roverscope Coordinator	Run a successful Roverscope at Venture 2006

Outdoors

Who is responsible?	What are we aiming to achieve?	Outcome
NRC Vice Chairman	Run Rovering's Greatest Adventure promotion and publicise entries.
NRC Chairman & Vice Chairman	Have at least two articles published in media outside of Scouting publications highlighting outdoor Rover activities.
NRC Chairman	Promote Envirover as an option for Rovers to enhance their environmental understanding

Support

Who is responsible?	What are we aiming to achieve?	Outcome
NRC Chairman, Vice Chairman & Training Officer	Make valuable contribution to the National Team of Scouts Australia and other sub-committees as youth representatives.
NRC Chairman	Share resources with New Zealand NRC and encourage New Zealand NRC Chairman to attend 2006 Australian NRC meeting.
NRC Exec	Provide assistance and guidance in Strategic Planning to Branches
NRC Vice Chairman & NRC WebMaster	The further development of the Australian Rovers Website including a new look in conjunction with the Advertising campaign.
NRC Exec	Develop 'Rovers Hot Tip' series and distribute to Rovers in various formats.	